

The Chairman's Club

AGNEW WINES

Both my sister Jessica and myself came to the wine industry from corporate backgrounds. Shortly after we brought together the highly regarded Pooles Rock and Cockfighter's Ghost labels to join the already thriving Audrey Wilkinson brand, we could see clearly the benefits for our customers in directly supplying the corporate sector with a broad selection of high-quality wines across a number of labels, whilst also offering all the benefit that being a member of our wine clubs brings.

So, it is with great pride that we invite you to join The Chairman's Club - a wine club specifically designed to meet your needs as a corporate wine client in terms of quality, range, pricing and amenity.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'James Agnew', is positioned above the name and title.

The Chairman's Club is a corporate wine club designed to meet your company's requirements for:

- Wine purchases
- Staff and client gifts
- Customised wine labels and special messages
- Corporate functions and more!

HOW IT WORKS

From small to large business, we can offer a package to suit your specific need.

All you have to do is purchase a few cases a year to qualify. We offer two separate tiers within The Chairman's Club and our team will assist you to select the best possible wine for your needs.

You are not locked into any specific delivery periods and you can receive the wine whenever suits.

Unlike others, we have no joining or exit fees.
